

GAY OUTLOOK IN LYNCHBURG

Social Organizations Ready for the Winter Season.

THURSDAY CLUB ANNUAL

Stockholders and Board to Meet at an Early Day—Piedmont Club Ladies'

Day a Social Event Gladly Welcomed—Diamond Hill Club.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., Oct. 3.—The coming winter promises to be one of the gayest socially that Lynchburg has known for many years. The several organizations that were in existence last year will continue in existence this year, and their weekly meetings will add much interest to the doings of society folk.

One of the best known and most successful of these organizations is the Thursday Club, which consists of twenty members, each one of which is expected to entertain the club some evening during the winter season. Of course, the entertaining member does not necessarily have to confine herself to the membership of the club, and many of the meetings are of a most elaborate and elegant character.

THURSDAY CLUB.
During last winter the Thursday Club was frequently entertained most handsomely, on several occasions the meetings being held in the attractive home of the Piedmont Club. In this connection it may be stated that the Piedmont Club is one of the most successful establishments of its kind in the State. Its membership to-day is about one hundred and forty. Under the rules of the club, there can be only one hundred and fifty resident members. The annual meeting of the stockholders and Board of Governors of the club will be held in the early future. This is a most interesting event, and one of its principal features is a sumptuous spread which includes all the delicacies and substantialities of the season.

The Piedmont Club has a ladies' day, on which its lady friends are expected to take advantage of its hospitality, and, needless to say, the club does not throw open its doors uselessly; for its kindness and liberality are fully appreciated, and these informal functions are attended by a great many ladies.

COOKING CLUB.
The ladies of Federal Hill have a Cooking Club, which has been in existence for several years, and which has proved a source of much pleasure and profitable instruction to its members. This organization is now permanently established, and apparently is confronted with a long and successful future.

The Diamond Hill Dramatic Club has had a brilliant career. This organization devotes itself to the presentation of plays of various kinds, particularly the more humorous, and many of its efforts have been among the most notable social events of Lynchburg's social season. On one or two occasions, the club has given musical performances, in which it has gotten off many jokes of a local character. These jokes have been thoroughly appreciated and have been frequently the talk of the town. The members of the club are exceedingly talented, and their work is most admirable and effective.

THE HORSE SHOW.
Naturally one of the most interesting events in Lynchburg for the fall of 1903 is the Horse Show, which takes place on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. The first exhibition of the Lynchburg Horse Show was given last year, and its great success leads to the conclusion that the exhibition this year will be even more successful. The entries this year are much more numerous, and the indications are that the attendance will be larger by many, many hundreds.

Among the organizations that contributed much to the interest of society last winter was the Spellers, which was entertained at the club once. Euchre was played, and the handsome prize which was contested for, was not to be awarded until all the meetings were held. A complete score was held. The closing game was naturally of a most exciting character. This club will probably be reorganized for the coming winter.

PETERSBURG SOCIAL LIFE

The Literary Club Will Soon
Begin the Winter Season.

DR. MITCHELL TO LECTURE

A Revival of Interest in the Receptions and Dances at the Country Club.
Petersburg Guests and Their Hosts.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., Oct. 3.—The social season in Petersburg is not yet in full blast but many preparations are being made for pleasures this winter. The Literary Club, which has among its members the most cultured women in the city, will begin their winter season about the middle of this month. Dr. S. C. Mitchell, professor of history at Richmond College, who is a favorite with lovers of literature in the Cockade City, has kindly agreed to deliver three lectures before the Literary Club, the general subject being "The French Revolution." "Mirabeau" will be the subject for Friday evening, October 16th; "Robespierre," for Friday evening, October 23d, and "Napoleon," for Friday evening, October 30th.
The lectures will be delivered at A. P.
Hill Camp Hall, on Tabb Street. The ladies having in charge the arrangements for these lectures have perfected them, and anticipate an exceedingly successful series.

There has been a revival of interest in the receptions and dances at the Country Club. The committee of ladies in charge have been working very diligently and the teas, which are given each Saturday afternoon, are always well attended and delightful. A bowling alley is building, the golf links have been improved and many other things done to add to the pleasure of the members and their friends.

SIX WEDDINGS.
There will be six marriages among the society people of Petersburg during October and November.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hahr, of Richmond, after their return from a stay in Maine, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers, in this city.
Miss Bettie Wilcox, of Flower de Hundred, is visiting in Roanoke.

Mr. Churchill Chamberlayne and Mr.
Reinhold Rogers, both formerly of Petersburg, have returned home from a delightful and profitable trip through European countries. Mr. Chamberlayne will complete his course at the Union Theological Seminary this year. Mr.
Rogers is professor of Philosophy at the University of Virginia.

Miss Bettie Floyd has returned to Petersburg from Bluefield, W. Va.
Mr. Gustavus Bruner and family, of St.
Louis, will spend the winter in Petersburg at the McGill residence, near this city.

Miss Jane Lovett is the guest of her cousins, the Misses Miller, in this city.
Mr. Lewis Chamberlayne, who was professor at the Southern Female College in this city during last session, has gone to Philadelphia, where he will teach in an academy in that city.

LOOK TO RICHMOND.

The horse loving people of Petersburg are taking a lively interest in the Horse Show to be held in Richmond this month.
Many have already arranged for seats during the show, and the city will doubtless be well represented.

Mrs. John Herbert Claiborne and Miss Annie Watson have returned from a trip to Baltimore.

Mr. Brooks Rogers is at home to spend a few days in this city.
Miss Jean Trigg, of Abingdon, who is an accomplished musician, is the guest of Misses Zimmer, on Sycamore Street.
Miss Trigg will leave in a short time for New York for the further training of her voice.

Miss Vivian Wilson, of Mobile, Ala., is visiting in the city.

Miss Mary Pegram, of Richmond, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Cameron, this week.
Mrs. Bolling Wilcox, of Flower de Hundred, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. George Pegram, on High Street.

Mrs. Ennon Williams, of Richmond, is visiting her brother, Mr. Charles T. Lassiter, in Petersburg.
Mr. Edmunds, of New York, has returned after a short stay at the home of Mr. Perrelli, in this city.

SOCIETY AT ASHEVILLE

Card Parties and Teas Kept the Ball a Rolling.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHEVILLE, N. C., October 3.—Even though the cool days of October have succeeded the summer weeks and a large number of social guests.

Half a dozen card parties and twice as many other functions have kept society in a rolling. Thursday was a day of ball affairs. Mrs. Frances Clemple, of this city, was the guest of Mrs. Charles Price, of Salisbury, gave a delightful card party at the home of Mrs. George Brown, of North Carolina, won the first prize, and Mrs. C. E.
Hamilton, of Alabama, won the consolation prize.

Miss J. E. Rumbough entertained at a card party on Thursday evening to honor William Randolph Forrester, of Florida.
Mrs. Sara Seibels won the first prize;
Miss Merrick the second, and Mrs. A. S.
Barnard the consolation prize.

On Friday morning Mrs. Thomas Settle gave a euchre party. Mrs. L. M. Bourne won the first prize, the consolation favor going to Mrs. Theodore Davidson.

Miss E. C. Laird was hostess at a whist party on Saturday afternoon. The prize in bridge went to Mrs. A. Martin, and that in duplicate to Miss Annie H. Williams.

Miss Merrick entertained at a tea on Wednesday afternoon to honor Mrs. Drew, of Texas, who has spent the summer here.
On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. A. D. Martin gave a tea to Mrs. Charles Price, of Memphis, and Mrs. C. C. of Memphis, and Mrs. London, of Birmingham.

WEEKLY WHIST CLUB

Marriage Near Whittles—Lieut. Gilmer

U. S. N., at Home.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHATHAM, VA., Oct. 3.—The lady devotees of whist in this city are holding their weekly whist club, with the following officers: Mrs. S. M. Coles, president; Miss Ida Hagdale, vice-president. The club will meet on Saturday night of each week. Nearly all of the lovers of whist will become members.

Miss Myrtle B. Cox and Mr. James A.
Wichter, of Pennsylvania county, were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Mr. A. A.
Cox, near White Sulphur Springs. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Chas. W.
Episcopal minister of this place. The party was very quiet, only members of the family and a few intimate friends were present.

Rev. C. B. Wilmer, after a short visit to his sister, Miss Lucy Page Wilmer, of Chatham, left on Wednesday for Atlanta, Ga.

Lieutenant William Gilmer, of the United States Navy, was the guest of his mother and sister a few days this week, returning on Wednesday to Norfolk, where he is now stationed.

BRILLIANT BALL IN WILMINGTON

Full Four Hundred Guests at Entertainment Given Visiting German Officers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, N. C., October 3.—The ball and banquet given Tuesday at the Masonic Temple in honor of the officers of the German gunboat Panther, now visiting in port, was a brilliant social occasion, and the affair was the crowning event of the hospitalities that have been showered upon the German officers. Fully four hundred persons were present, as invited guests. Besides the scores of young society men and women, who took a conspicuous part in the ball, there were present many city and county officials and their friends. The navy uniforms of the visiting officers and the always attractive full dress uniforms of local and State military officers mingled beautifully and were set off to perfection by the wealth of handsome gowns and lovely women. The ball room was splendidly decorated and it presented a scene of grandeur.

Lieutenant H. M. Chase, of the Naval Reserves, was ball manager, and very well did he perform his duties. The music was by Hollowbush's Orchestra, and it was in full keeping with the occasion.
A programme ball was danced until after midnight when the banquet was served. After the banquet the cotillion was danced.

One striking feature of the decorations was the blending of United States, German and British flags. The decorations around the hall were largely in German colors, red, white and black.

The chaperones were as follows: Mrs.
J. Victor Granger, Mrs. Walter Small-bones, Mrs. C. S. Grainger, Mrs. Walker
Taylor, Mrs. J. C. Kenly, Mrs. D. W.
Williams, Mrs. W. F. Robertson, Mrs.
J. C. De Rosset, Mrs. R. F. Gardner,
Mrs. W. S. Johnson, Mrs. Marcus W.
Jacobi, Mrs. John H. Rehder, Mrs. J. V. L.
Ridley, Mrs. Hannah Bolles and Miss Adelaide Meares.

The banquet was served at 1 o'clock in the banquet hall on the next floor below.
The tables were handsomely decorated and the hall presented a beautiful scene.
The banquet was most elaborate and was served in elegant style by the King's Daughters. After the repast dancing was resumed, and continued until an early hour. It was a brilliant and successful social affair, and one to be long remembered.

We were very busy last week, and know that we did not ship out goods just as promptly as we should have, but our clerical force is now complete, so is our shipping force, and our fall stock is now in; in fact, our numerous warerooms are packed and jammed with the best and choicest assortment of Furniture of all kinds, Carpets, Druggets and Draperies, that has ever been shown in the city of Richmond—perhaps—this and the fact of the lowness of our prices, you know Jurgens' prices are always the lowest and Jurgens' prices are all marked in plain figures, may have been the cause of our being swamped with orders last week.
